

Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement for letting residential dwellinghouse

General Notes

1. This tenancy agreement is for letting furnished or unfurnished residential accommodation on an assured shorthold tenancy within the provisions of the Housing Act 1988 as amended by Part III of the Housing Act 1996. As such, this is a legal document and should not be used without adequate knowledge of the Law of Landlord and Tenant
2. This agreement may be used for residential tenancies of three years or less. Agreements for tenancies of a longer duration should be drawn up by deed.
3. A Notice of Assured Shorthold Tenancy need no longer be served on the Tenant for new tenancies created on or after 28 February 1997
4. Section 11, Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 - these obligations require the Landlord to keep in repair the structure and exterior of the Property and to keep in repair and proper working order the installations for the supply of water, gas and electricity and the installations in the Property for space heating or heating water
5. Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 provides that a notice shall be sufficiently served if sent by registered or recorded post (if the letter is not returned undelivered) to the Tenant at the Property or the last known address of the Tenant or left addressed to the Tenant at the Property

Note for Tenants

This tenancy agreement is a legal and binding contract and the Tenant is responsible for payment of the rent for the entire agreed term. The agreement may not be terminated early unless the agreement contains a break clause, or written permission is obtained from the Landlord

If you are unsure of your obligations under this agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing
